Lee Dones and his family have moved to Lake county, Tenn., where Lee is going to farm this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris, and Mrs. Morris' sister, Miss Addie Dickson, moved back to Hayti last Thursday.

Alabama coal for sale all the time and promptly delivered to any part of the city. Terms positively CASH on delivery. This coal is not mine run, but good, screened coal. Hayti Storage, Chas. Morgan, Mgr. 50tf

Mrs. Carrie Baldwin and children of Kennett visited her father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Mayes last week.

Jule Elder, one of the best saloon men in the county, spent a few hours out of the busy whirl at Caruthersville last Thursday and took in the sights at Hayti.

F. M. Perkins and Leo Green-Greenwell of the Citizens Bank attended to business matters at Pascola Tuesday.

Attorney J. E. Duncan of Caruthersville was a Hayti visitor Friday. This is John's first home in Pemiscot county, and the people are all glad to see him come.

J. A. Johnson and little daughter came over from Kennett Monday, and Mr. Johnson informed us that he expected to move back to Hayti soon.

Beginning April 1, all the stores in Hayti will close promptly at 6:30 p. m. This is made necessary by the reason that the owners and clerks need an opportunity for rest and recreation. So bear this in mind and arrange to buy your goods before 6:30 p. m.

Virg. P. Adams is the last person to announce as a candidate for city office, that of police judge. Mr. Adams needs no introduction from us. He is one of our pioneer citizens and well and favorably known. If elected he promises fairness and justice to all and a strict enforcement of the law.

Some people have made great efforts to draw the editor of the Herald into the present controversy between the various city candidates, but we are "hands off." We haven't a word to say, for or against any candidate, but we will protect each and every candidate against unfairness. Every candidate in the field, P. S. Ravenstein, Dr. Trautmann, William W. Tarkington, Frank Gwin, Virg. P. Adams, Oliver H. Dewey, Lum Leller, Otis Popham, Arthur Allen, Fred Morgan, S. E. Cambron, Atlee Jackson, Wm. Bailey, Brack Gaskins, Frank Cranford and E. S. Fuller, are all warm, personal friends of ours and our patrons, and the people must decide between them. It is strange that so many people want to fight and injure their home paper, after it has done so much for the town, and it is disheartening to us. Either the failure or removal of this paper would be a serious blow to the town, and it is extremely doubtful if another one could ever be made a success, even if the citizens should donate the outfit and pay all expenses for the first year.

We want all the eggs and butter we can get. Best price, cash or trade. Sanders Bros. 21tf

New Madrid S. E. Missourian: Henry Ransburgh of Hayti was in New Madrid, his former home, Monday. He is one of the moving public spirited citizens of his home town in which he lives, and is prospering.

Team and Wagon for Sale.

Good team of matched horses and good wagon and harness for sale on reasonable terms. J. L. Dorris. 2t

$130.00 Lost on Streets.

Last Sunday or Monday Geo. W. Dorris lost on the streets of Hayti a roll of greenback amounting to about $130.00. Mr. Dorris had been horseback riding Sunday afternoon, and it is possible that the money jostled out of his pocket. Mr. Dorris will pay a liberal reward if found and returned to him.

Pay by the Issue and Inch.

As notice was given by publication, beginning with this year, all advertising would be charged for at so much per inch per week, or issue, and no advertising would be taken by the calendar month, as several months have five weeks, or issues, and we cannot afford to go to the extra expense and labor of getting out this fifth issue without being paid for it.

This year there four months, March, June, August and November, having five issues each, equal to one extra month.

Now, it costs considerable to run a newspaper a month, and we cannot afford to do so without pay.

Do not forget this when our collector comes around to collect your March account—it will be for five weeks advertising, instead of four weeks.

"Very respectfully, "Geo. P. HOBBS, J. N. DOWNING, W. N. WHITTEN, Pres., H. A. WORKMAN, Clerk, Carter District."

This is a good salary and one that is not found in many rural schools of the state, and they have reasons for being proud of their school.

Mound School, District No. 21: Situated in the south central part of the county on the Caruthersville-Cottonwood Point road, in one of the most fertile regions of the county. Here is a nice frame building, sufficiently large to accommodate 75 or more pupils. This school is equipped with modern desks and recitation seats, globe, unabridged dictionary, and the largest coal stove found in any school of the county. On date of visitation I found 17 boys and 14 girls in attendance. J. F. Huff is teaching this school. He is an earnest, conscientious working young man and doing good work in his school. The recitations of the pupils were good. They recited with interest.

Our aim is to make our saloon one of the best in town, and in order to do this every customer will be given just exactly what he wants and calls for and be treated with courtesy. Bolen & Bailey. 2tf

YOUR MARGIN OF PROFIT

Lies in the difference between your increase and your expenditure. The more your increase exceeds your out go, the more rapid your advancement toward competency and wealth. Make it a point to save a portion of your income. The best way is to deposit your total earnings in a strong bank and pay all bills by check. Your bank book and canceled checks will keep you informed as to your financial standing and you will be able to tell where every cent has gone. If you are inclined to be the least bit provident, this will result in the reducing of extravagance, in the practice of economy and thrift, and ultimate success.

Make your margin of profit a good one and hang on to it.
